

Salisbury Post
December 21, 2007

Great 'Nutcracker'

"The Nutcracker" that was performed at Keppel Auditorium on Sunday, Dec. 16, was ne of the finest performances that I have ever witnessed in Salisbury.

The skill of the Piedmont Dance Theatre dancers along with the superb sounds of the Salisbury Symphony Orchestra combined to make the evening unforgettable.

As I watched, listened and applauded, I continually had to remind myself that I was in Salisbury, N.C., and not New York City.

My compliments to everyone involved and especially Dr. David Hagy, Salisbury Symphony music director/conductor; Linda Jones, symphony executive director; Floyd Walcher, the president, Rowan County Concert Association and Ms. Rebecca Massey Wiley, artistic director of Piedmont Dance Theatre, for a very professional and enjoyable evening of entertainment.

Two performances sellouts and two standing ovations in one day; What more needs to be said!
-Frank W. Goodnight